FOUNDER STATEMENT

At Cooley Reserve, each piece begins in rare timber and is shaped by hand, guided by instinct, patience and a quiet regard for the material.

Nothing is rushed. Nothing is repeated. What emerges is singular - defined by balance, restraint and an enduring sense of place.

Barry Finnegan

BARRY FINNEGAN
FOUNDER & WOODTURNER

The hands behind Cooley Reserve are present in every surface, every curve and every final polish.

COOLEY RESERVE
ROOTED IN TIME. MADE TO ENDURE.

The Journey Begins Long Before the Lathe.

Across Irish woodland, old estates and reclaimed sources, timber is selected for memory rather than uniformity. A knot, a split, a darkened line - each is part of the yarn the wood carries forward.

1

FORAGED

Hand sourced and chosen for character, figure, age and provenance.

2

SEASONED

Prepared, air dried or kiln dried with patience to preserve stability and soul.

3

TURNED

Shaped by hand into singular pieces - each with its own future.

Every piece has a legacy.
Our work is to give it another.

ANCIENT IRISH BOG OAK

5,000 Year Old Bog Oak.

CARBON DATED. CERTIFIED. REMARKABLE.

Preserved for millennia beneath Ireland's boglands, this rare timber is carbon dated, certified and personally provenanced by Barry Finnegan. Transformed by hand, it becomes a piece of living history - an object intended to pass forward through generations.

History in your hands.
A future for generations.

CERTIFICATE OF PROVENANCE
